Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

GCU's tuition refund policy is mandated by the Georgia Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission (see below). Tuition may be refunded as provided below. Please note that simply not attending classes does not constitute a formal withdrawal from the University. To formally withdraw, a student must submit an Official Withdrawal Request Form to the Office of Admissions and a dated and signed Tuition Refund Request Form to the Office of Business Affairs as soon as possible after deciding to withdraw. A student will be issued a refund if the last date of attendance is on or before the date marking the midpoint of the semester or academic session.

A student may receive a refund for overpayment, withdrawal from classes, or dismissal from the University. There is no administrative fee for discontinuing as a student of the University. All refunds are issued within 30 days of the date of withdrawal; however, if overseas delivery is required, actual delivery may take several days beyond this 30-day period.

Refunds are determined based on prorating of tuition and the percentage of a program completed at the time withdrawal, up through 50% of the program. For example, if a student completes 25% of the semester, as calculated on the official Academic Calendar published by GCU, he/she will receive a refund of 75% of tuition paid. If a student withdraws after completing more than 50% of the program, no refund of tuition will be issued. Refunds will be issued for tuition ONLY*. Refunds will not be issued for the following:

- Late registration fee (per class)
- Private scholarship funds
- Graduation fees
- Returned check or declined credit card fees
- Late payment fees
- Application fee I-20 fee
- Penalty for non-payment or default payment fee

Tel: (770) 279-0507 | www.gcuniv.edu

NOTE: All monies, including application fees, will be refunded IF AND ONLY IF the student requests a refund within three (3) business days of signing the application paperwork, OR if no paperwork is signed and, prior to classes beginning, the student requests a refund within three (3) business days of making a payment.

A student who believes that a refund has not been calculated correctly may appeal to the Director of Business Affairs and, if need be, to the President.
